

Break-Out Sessions:

Where is God Leading You?

Joy and Grief: A Brainstorming Session

Daina Funk : Room 114

This workshop hopes to develop a deeper understanding of grief and joy. We'll explore how grief and joy can break us, teach us, and shape us. As we navigate both joy and grief, we'll take time to discover what it means to be fully known and deeply loved by God.

A Confersation on Dating

Brenda Brown / Lifeculture : Room 112

Are you in or have been in a dating relationship, or are you thinking about dating? Are you curious on what to look for or how to navigate certain areas?

In this session we will break down what healthy dating looks like, call out some red flags, dating safety and more.

Transformation: Through the lens of John 10:10

Anari-Mai Byfield : Room 106

Anari will unpack John 10:10 teaching you how God's powerful truths shatter the lies we believe about ourselves. In her session you'll learn how reflection leads to transformation and ultimately joy through Christ.

Finding God in Every Brilliant Thing

Dr. Candace Maxymowich : Room 113

In this interactive breakout session, we'll explore how God's Word can support our mental wellness and how His presence can bring joy to our hearts. Together, we'll discover some of the brilliant things that remind us of God's goodness.

Rescued From Labels, Released Into JOY!

Taliah Braun : Room 101

Do you find yourself plagued by insecurity or fixated on the one thing you wish you could change about yourself to be acceptable? Taliah was born blind in her left eye, and has worn a prosthetic eye since so was a baby. She spent years wanting to hide rather than live under the scrutiny of other people's labels. But God led her out of insecurity and fear to international influence and impact, ultimately feeling true joy in how God made her. She has a passion for encouraging and empowering others towards freedom and joy.

Joy Beyond Circumstances

Hailey Penner : Room 108

I'll be talking about how our joy doesn't have to be dependent on our circumstances, rather when we surrender our life to Jesus, we can find FULLNESS of JOY in Him. So, even when things around us are hard, or life isn't going how we'd like we can find joy in Him! So, in my breakout we'll be diving into this thought a little deeper!!

I'm A Christian But Where Is The Power?

Shonna Hildebrand : Room 114

Have you ever wondered why your life as a Christian doesn't look much different from the world around you, or found yourself simply going through the motions of faith? In this session, Shonna will explore the difference between simply existing in Christian culture and experiencing an active relationship with Jesus, the Bible, prayer, and the power of the Holy Spirit. Through honest discussion and powerful testimony, you'll be invited to pursue a faith that brings hope, joy, and real transformation to your everyday life.
